

February 2015 Newsletter

Principal's Corner – Mrs. Gaudin

We are preparing our annual re-enrollment contracts now, and we will need your Sliding Fee form returned before we calculate how much we will ask you to contribute. Please return the form to me no later than February 13, 2015.

The February McKay checks are in, so please come into sign yours as soon as possible.

Dismissal Time

Dismissal time is 2:30 pm, unless a student is involved in Dual Enrollment, Work Study, or has prior approval to leave before 2:30. Students will not be dismissed before 2:25 so you may either wait in the car line or park in a space, but please do not park in the car line or block other people from coming or going. Classes are still going on until 2:20. Students leaving before dismissal must sign out in the front office.

Yearbook News

You may still order a yearbook online at www.ybpay.lifetouch.com and enter our code 6527415 or send in a check for $35.00.

Box Tops for Education

Please continue supporting box tops by clipping them and bringing them into the school. The next submission is March 2 so please bring them in by February 27.

Basketball News

Basketball games will be on Fridays at 12:30 p.m. Please refer to the calendar for the dates and locations of the games. Coach Drignet will hold practice at school as his schedule allows, but we encourage students to practice while out on break and lunch as well as at home. Players need to bring their own water bottles and wear appropriate shoes for basketball as well as complete the daily work.

High School Prom

Saturday, April 11th is the date of our high school prom. This is a joint event with the Lutz, Pinellas Park, and Riverview Center Academies. Finger foods, soda and DJ provided. It is open to students in 9th-12th grade. It will be held at the Tampa Club in Tampa. The cost will be $35 per guest.

Subway

If you want to order lunch from Subway this month, please turn in your menu as soon as possible.
